3. For other concerns:

a. Is there a need for analytics for the simulation games?	Yes, basic analytics is required for the simulation games (i.e., no. of downloads, basic demographics of the users)
---	--

b. Whether the Procuring Entity through BAC will have a criteria on how to evaluate the submitted proposal i.e. based on the quality of the proposal not based on the lowest bidder	Since the procurement is for goods and services, the submitted proposal will be evaluated based on the most advantageous to the government, i.e., lowest bidder, value for money.
c. Will there be an additional kiosk for the game development?	There will be no additional kiosk for the game development since the games/apps will not be released simultaneously. The PAGTANAW Interactive game will use the same interactive touchscreen kiosks mentioned in the Technical Specification and BOQ.

4. Bill of Quantities (BOQ) – attached

This bulletin shall form an intergral part of the Bid Documents for the said project.

For guidance and information of all concerned.
